

January/February:

- ICPRB Building a Potomac for the Future
- Chairman's Report
- Watching the River Flow
- From the Executive Director's Desk
- PHNST Preserves Potomac History
- River Flow Data Available on the Web
- Come for a Swim

March/April :

- Cleanup Volunteers Remove 117 Tons of Trash From Watershed: Goal of "Trash-Free in 10 Years" Set
- Residents Can Help Meet New CBP Goals
- Virginia to Test Non-Native Oysters
- Potomac Milestones: Current, Former Commissioners Pass Away
- Watching the River Flow
- New Federal Commissioners Appointed
- Come Paddle the Tidal Potomac!
- Potomac Water Trail Maps for Sale

May/June :

- Migratory Fish Restoration Programs Continue to Grow Fish, Awareness
- The Pull of Spring
- Education Program Seeks to Curb Poaching
- Monocacy Residents Learn of River Up Close
- Watching the River Flow
- Potomac Basin Builds Green
- Virginia Hosts Potomac Forum

July/August :

2003 Potomac Basin Reporter Issues

Written by Administrator - Last Updated Friday, 29 August 2008 14:09

- When it Rains, It Pours -- Nutrients: Extended Wet Weather Affects Potomac
- Potomac's Wild Celery to Help Restore SAV Beds in Other Rivers
- Sojourners Find Spirit of the Potomac
- Swimmers Quickly Cross Potomac
- Watching the River Flow
- Upper Potomac Tributary Team Takes Farm Tour
- Reporter Available on Web

September/October :

- Isabel Leaves Mark on Potomac Basin
- Wet Weather and Storms: Effects on the Potomac
- ICPRB Assists in Sewage Spill Response
- New ICPRB Officers Elected for 2003-04; Annual Report Available
- Potomac Watershed Forum Brings Virginia's Potomac Together
- Watching the River Flow
- C&O Canal Park Superintendent Retires

November/December :

- A Mixed Year for Natural Resources
- ICPRB, USGS Begin Comprehensive Groundwater Assessment
- Watching the River Flow
- Half Shell Plies Anacostia Waters
- Kempton Mine Reclamation Continues
- Chesapeake Council Seeks Funds for Bay Restoration