

2001 Potomac Basin Reporter Issues

Written by Administrator - Last Updated Friday, 29 August 2008 15:02

---

January/February:

- ICPRB Continues Focus on Partnerships in 2001
- Chairman's Report
- Town Creek Watershed Groups Meet, Plans Shared
- Watching the River Flow
- Citizens and Government Officials Meet to Discuss DC Swap Status
- Give the River Half a Day
- New Commissioner Appointed

March/April :

- 4,000 Volunteers Clean Watershed
- Future of Metro Water Supply Studied
- Metro Area Water Supply Prepared for Dry Summer; Use of Storage More Likely
- Watching the River Flow
- Groups Celebrate Five Years of Potomac, Arakawa Friendship
- Japanese Walkers Enjoy Potomac Trek
- Steiner Leaves ICPRB

May/June :

- Shad Returning to Upper Potomac
- Tidal Potomac Shows Improvement, but More Needed
- Distance Swimmers Cross Potomac to Raise Awareness, Funds
- Citizens Canoe Monocacy, Discuss Current River Issues
- Kids, Families Gather to Fish and Learn About Potomac Issues
- Watching the River Flow
- Experience the Potomac

July/August :

- Stocking of River Herring Continues

2001 Potomac Basin Reporter Issues

Written by Administrator - Last Updated Friday, 29 August 2008 15:02

---

- Potomac Unusually Cloudy; Fishing a Challenge This Summer
- Diversity Growing in Potomac
- River Critters: Can You Name This Potomac Denizen?
- Watching the River Flow
- W.Va. Monitors South Branch Potomac
- ICPRB, ARBC To Launch New Campaign
- Potomac Calendar

September/October :

- Potomac in Washington Closed to Traffic After Attack
- Maintaining a Focus: Message from Executive Director Hoffman
- EPA Moves to Allay Drinking Water Concerns
- Companies Seek Permits for Power Plant Construction Along Potomac
- Watching the River Flow
- Potomac Shoreline to be Preserved
- Bryozoa Revealed
- Potomac Calendar

November/December :

- ICPRB Biologists Survey Pennsylvania Streams
- Md. Advisory Warns About Eating Fish
- ICPRB Units Evolve to Meet Changing Demands
- Striped Bass Reproduction Excellent in Bay, Near Average for Potomac
- Watching the River Flow
- Shad Returning to Potomac in Record Numbers
- Annual Potomac Cleanup Set for April 6; New Sites Needed
- Pa. Hosts February Nutrient, Sediment Forum